AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I, ROBERT G. SMITH, am employed by the Army Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) at Maxwell Air Force Base as a store detective. On or about 23 January 2007, I observed, via closed circuit monitors, ALICE B. JACKSON, agent for Air Force Staff Sergeant Tamika Hawkins, as she selected four sets of jewelry from a display in the Exchange. JACKSON put the jewelry in the bottom of her shopping cart on top of sales flyers. As JACKSON shopped around the store, the jewelry was visible until she went to the shoe department. When she left the shoe department, the jewelry was not visible. JACKSON continued to shop around and finally went to the central checkout where she paid for several items, but not the jewelry. I followed JACKSON out of the store to her car. JACKSON began to transfer her bags to her car and she then reached into the cart, lifted the sales flyers, picked up the jewelry and put the items of jewelry into a bag she had. At that time, I approached JACKSON, told her who I was, asked for her identification, and finally escorted her to the security office in the store. JACKSON was not cooperative. Security Forces was called and responded. JACKSON admitted she had taken the items, but claimed she had forgotten to pay for them. When Security Forces arrived, JACKSON was searched and an item of cosmetics was found hidden by her purse that was not on her receipt. The items not paid for were: Nine West earrings, value $24.00; Nine West earrings, value $19.00; Sterling Silver earrings, value $13.49; Ashley B. earrings, value $3.95; and Lancome mascara, value $19.55. Total value of items is $79.99. JACKSON was transported to the Law Enforcement Desk for further processing.

ROBERT G. SMITH
